Mandatory reporting on COVID-19 vaccination for all CHSP and NATSIFACP providers

Mandatory reporting starts next week on Tuesday 5 October 2021, for all Commonwealth Home Support Programme (CHSP) and National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Flexible Aged Care Program (NATSIFACP) home care providers on the COVID-19 vaccination status of the aged care workforce. Reporting is via the My Aged Care portal for providers.

The new reporting requires CHSP and NATSIFACP home care providers to record de-identified data at a service level on the:

total number of workers at each aged care service, and of those,

the number of workers at each service who have received a single dose of a COVID-19 vaccine the number of workers at each service who have received all required doses of a COVID-19 vaccine.

Additional information is available on the department's website and support is available through the CHSP Emergency Support for COVID-19 grant opportunity \(GO3877\).

Approved provider application fee consultation

Under the Aged Care Quality and Safety Commission Act 2018, organisations seeking to provide aged care services subsidised by the Australian Government are required to be an 'approved provider'.

To become an approved provider, organisations must make a written application which is assessed by the Aged Care Quality and Safety Commission (the Commission). Deciding that a business is suitable to provide aged care involves a significant assessment process.

In the 2021-22 Budget, the Government decided that businesses applying to become an approved provider of aged care will be charged a fee to recover the costs of the assessment of their application.

Accordingly, businesses applying to become an approved provider of aged care will soon be charged a fee by the Commission to recover the costs of assessing their application.

You can share your views by completing the online feedback form.

Inside Aged Care 2021

This report tracks national perceptions of the aged care industry. This is the 4th edition of the report. Timing of the reports is as follows:

- 2018 – Pre-Royal Commission
- 2019 – During Royal Commission
- 2020 – COVID-19
- 2021 – Post Royal Commission & ongoing COVID-19 challenges

The data highlights movement in public sentiment across these vitally important time periods. The report covers a wide range of subjects that can be used by multiple audiences to build policy, guide investments, and prioritise targeting approaches.

Keeping Well During the Pandemic’ – In-language online webinars for CALD Communities

The COVID-19 pandemic has had a significant impact on our mental health and wellbeing, leaving many of us struggling with stress, sadness and many other emotions and experiences. As part of October’s Mental Health Month, the Transcultural Mental Health Centre (TMHC) is organising a series of online webinars in multiple languages for members of CALD Communities.

The webinars will focus on the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic on our mental health and wellbeing, how to recognise symptoms of mental distress in ourselves and others and provide information on where to seek help. The webinars will also provide tips and skills on how to manage stress and keep well during this challenging time.

The webinars will be in-language or in English with an interpreter.

Managing Mandatory Vaccine Policy for NSW-based Community Organisations – Justice Connect's on demand webinar

Mandatory vaccination policies are a hot topic right now and keeping workers and clients safe is the number one priority. However, there’s a complex maze of legal requirements to navigate when it comes to mandating employees to be vaccinated - like public health orders, WHS obligations, as well as anti-discrimination and industrial relations laws. Justice Connect’s free on demand webinar explains the issues in ways that are easy to understand.

The Fair Work Ombudsman and SafeWork Australia have also published useful resources:

- Fair Work Ombudsman guidance on COVID-19 vaccinations
- Safe Work Australia guidance on COVID-19 Information for workplaces

Retain Volunteers - 26 October 2011, Online

The Centre for Volunteering Cost: $0-$145.

Does your organisation struggle to retain volunteers or do they need to review their approach to retaining volunteers? Volunteer retention is one of the most challenging aspects of working in the volunteering sector. Whether you are a Volunteer Manager or working in a Volunteer Involving Organisation creating strong volunteer programs through effective retention is so important for the productivity, stability and culture of your organisation; not to mention it keeps costs down. Regular evaluation of your organisation's volunteer strategy and practices is an essential part of effective volunteer management.
